

Remembering

The other day I got into one of those “where were you when” kinds of discussions as we thought about the horrific events of September 11, 2001. The terrorist attacks on the New York World Trade Center and the Pentagon was one of those events that will forever change the way we look at the world and the way we feel about ourselves as a nation and even as individuals.

We talked about how many people lost their lives, and how many more lives were affected by those deaths that day. Wives and husbands, children and parents, family and friends from one end of the nation to the other, who lost loved ones and whose lives would never be the same. The many heroes who stepped up that day, running back into the buildings to save others, many who lost their own lives, and many of whom are suffering ongoing health effects because of their bravery in the face of peril.

9-1-1. The date and numeric symbol that has embodied all of the events and aftermath of one of the most significant events in our national memory. It solidified us as a nation and steeled our resolve, and continues to represent both terrible tragedy and amazing heroism in our national consciousness.

Unfortunately, what it means has diminished over time. The attack on Pearl Harbor created similar feelings for an earlier generation, but is ancient history for younger Americans. The assassinations of John F. Kennedy and Martin Luther King, Jr. had an enormous impact on our nation, but they have faded with the passing of time.

And unfortunately, for many Christians, the impact of the crucifixion of Jesus has diminished with time. The most significant event in all of history should be remembered every day by every believer because of what God did and continues to do in our lives. Every Lord’s Day as we gather around the table and take the Supper, our minds should go back to the cross. We dare not let the cross lose its impact or fade in our memories. It must have a permanent and powerful effect on everything we do.

Starting this week, we began our 11th year of partnering with Feed My Sheep to house the homeless in our Fellowship Room during the winter nights. We will also begin serving breakfast every Saturday morning starting Dec 1. If you would like to help cook and serve breakfast, see John.

For Our Guests:

We are thrilled that you have joined us this morning. We hope that your time of worship and fellowship will be a blessing to you. As our guest, we would like to ask you to fill out a guest card that you will find in the rack on the back of each pew. When the offering tray comes around, just drop it in as your contribution to us.

If you have any needs we can help with, or if you are looking for a church family where you can worship and serve God, please let us know how we can serve you.

For Your Children:

A Nursery is available for babies through age 3 at the back of the auditorium (on the east side).

Kingdom Kids is for children who are ages 4 years through 4th grade. They will be dismissed to go downstairs after the offering.

Kingdom Builders is for 5th grade through teens. Meet in teen room after the offering.

Each week this congregation participates in the Lord's Supper, following the teaching of Scripture and the pattern of the church in the New Testament. This is a time for those who have committed themselves to follow Jesus as Lord to remember His sacrifice for us and to renew our allegiance to Him. Everyone sharing this intention is welcome to participate.
